Present at the meeting were Judith Swagerty, Darcy Smith, David Galvan, Dennis Kelley and City Clerk Adrienne Luthi. Mayor Ward Stockamp and Trudi Rathbun were both absent. One Visitor, Brian Kuntz with KWHa arrived at 7:12 P.M. and left the meeting at 7:40 P.M.

Motion by Darcy Smith, second by Dennis Kelley to approve resolutions 2019-01,2019-02,2019-03,2019-04 and 2019-05. Motion Carried.

Council discussed Christmas lights and picked out 6 new Christmas lights for the light poles to replace some that have started to not work properly anymore. Motion by Darcy Smith, second by Judith Swagerty to approve the purchase of 2 of each of the chosen Christmas lights in the flyer, not to exceed $2500.00. Motion Carried.

Dennis Kelley discussed the possibility of the City getting a flag for the meeting room. A lighted flag pole in front of the City Office was also discussed. Adrienne Luthi will look for some options and bring them to the next council meeting.

Brian Kuntz discussed his organization KWHa renting the arena. He has one weekend a month from April to August that he would like to rent it. Brian was referred to the Lions Club and informed of their meeting on the 11th of February to discuss with them his ideas, requests and whether the dates would interfere with them working in the arena getting prepared for the Rodeo.

David Galvan provided mosquito information to the council so they could read about some options available. No action taken.

Bennington High School after prom donation request was discussed. Motion by Judith Swagerty to donate $50.00 to the Bennington High School after prom event. Motion died for lack of a second.

Motion by Dennis Kelley, second by Judith Swagerty to adjourn the meeting at 8:36 P.M. Motion Carried.
